

Faculty Positions in Finance at the University of Lugano (USI)

The Swiss Finance Institute (SFI) and the University of Lugano (a.k.a. Università della Svizzera Italiana -- USI) invite applications for two faculty positions: one tenure track assistant professor and one full professor. Candidates in any area of Finance will be considered.

For the junior position, the candidates should expect to hold a PhD and demonstrate strong research potential. For the senior position, the candidates should have a proven research record that complies with the SFI standards. Salaries are competitive.

The University offers Bachelor's, Master's, and PhD programs. PhD and Master's courses are taught in English, undergraduate courses are taught in English and Italian. Knowledge of Italian is not necessary.

We will interview candidates at the AFA meetings in Atlanta.

Interested candidates should send a sample of their research, CV, and at least three letters of recommendation to:

Professor Giovanni Barone-Adesi
Director of the Institute of Finance
University of Lugano (USI)
